

Low Hits The Road With New Remixes EP

Jan 10, 2006

Story by: Jesseka Kadylak

Slowcore trio Low will set off on a three-month North American tour, beginning January 26 in Milwaukee. This will be the band's first tour with bassist Matt Livingston, who replaced Zak Sally in December 2005. Sally replaced original Low bassist John Nichols 10 years ago.

In December 2005, Low also released their EP Tonight The Monkeys Die, on their own Chairkickers label. Tonight The Monkeys Die features remixes of the original track, "Monkey" (from their latest Sub Pop full-length, The Great Destroyer) by artists such as Bob Mould, Stephin Merritt and Fog.
