Dead Can Dance Reunion Tour

Oct 07, 2005

For the first time in almost a decade, 4AD legends Lisa Gerrard and Brendan Perry of Dead Can Dance have reunited to perform a few select US dates (the tour is already in progress). In the intervening years since their last record, 1996's Spiritchaser, Perry has released the solo record Eye Of The Hunter while Gerrard has released two solo albums and contributed to movie soundtracks such as Gladiator, Heat, and Whale Rider. On October 18, Dead Can Dance will get the retrospective treatment from Warner Bros./Rhino with the album Momento, a collection of 15 tracks from their 25-year career.
