

Sage Francis Tours For Knowmore.org

Sep 23, 2005

Spoken-word savant Sage Francis is touring North America to spread awareness about Knowmore.org with fellow artists Sol.iLLaquists Of Sound and Sole. A grassroots, non-profit web-based community, Knowmore.org is committed to recording and warding off corporate attacks on democracy, workers, human rights, fair trade, business ethics and the environment. The site's goal is to proactively help and encourage people to become better-informed consumers by supplying information on companies with bad track records. In addition to the tour, Sage Francis is finishing up a new DVD that includes interviews and behind-the-scenes footage, to be released in November by Epitaph Records.
