

Tom Verlaine Readies Two Releases

Guitar icon and founder of Television (the band, not the actual television... that was Philo Farnsworth) Tom Verlaine, has announced plans to unveil two as-of-yet-untitled records, one of them instrumental, in April of next year. The albums will be released by Thrill Jockey, who is also reissuing Verlaine's first instrumental album, Warm and Cool on October 11, complete with eight bonus tracks. Verlaine is currently on tour with Patti Smith, but is organizing a band for select Television dates.
